breaze aims to:

- promote and develop renewable sources of energy
- generate projects that the local community can both share in and own
- focus on reducing energy use, renewable energy use and offsetting energy use to bring about zero net greenhouse emissions for the region
- be a source of independent expertise and advice on sustainable living practices
- involve the community, including businesses and other organisations, in energy sustainability programs
- conduct advocacy on energy-related public policy issues (e.g. built environment, transport, urban form)
